

CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

Holiday Themed Costume Class: Open to all ages. Can be mounted or unmounted.

- Dress up your horse or your dog! Any official holiday goes. The judge may ask questions about your costume.

Walk Classes: Open to riders aged 12 years and younger who are not able to trot unassisted. Riders may not cross enter any other division. Riders are welcome to enter the Holiday Costume Contest.

- Lead Line: Riders aged 8 years old and younger will be led on their horse or pony in both directions of the ring. Judges may ask the children to post, two point, or halt their horse or pony. All participants receive a blue ribbon (first place) and may choose a prize from our prize box.
- Walk: Riders will be required to walk and steer on their own. May be asked to two-point. Could also be asked to halt and back. A helper may walk alongside the horse/pony if necessary.
- Walk Course: Riders will be required to follow a simple course including poles and cones. A helper may walk alongside the horse/pony if necessary.

Walk/Trot Obstacle Course: Open to all regardless of other classes/division. Will be timed.

- Riders will be required to follow a course at the walk and trot. The course may include poles, cones, mailbox, and/or an optional bridge.
- Riders may enter the course in hand rather than mounted.
- Riders will be penalized for cantering on course.

Simon Says: Open to all ages.

- Commands will be called out by one person, "Simon". Riders are to follow Simon's instructions, and only follow through with the command if "Simon Says" is included. For example, if Simon says, "Simon Says trot on the wrong diagonal", all riders need to post the trot on the wrong diagonal. But if Simon says, "Trot on the wrong diagonal", any riders that follow this command will be eliminated. The last rider left is the winner of the class.

Sit A Buck: Open to all ages. Winner keeps all the dollars from their class.

- Walk/Trot: Riders are mounted bareback without a bareback pad and will be required to walk and trot on the rail in both directions. A one-dollar bill is to be placed under their thigh and may not be touched by the rider once placed. If the dollar drops, the rider must halt in the center of the arena. The last rider to have the dollar still in place is the winner and wins all the dollars in the class. May be asked for posting trot, sitting trot, two-point, circles, halt, and back.

- Walk/Trot/Canter: Riders are mounted bareback without a bareback pad and will be required to walk, trot, and canter on the rail in both directions. A one-dollar bill is to be placed under their thigh and may not be touched by the rider during the class. If the dollar drops, the rider must halt in the middle of the arena. The last rider to have the dollar still in place is the winner and wins all the dollars in the class. May be asked for posting trot, sitting trot, circles, halt, and back.
